Chris Kunhardt retired in September, 2014 after a 26 year investment banking career with J.P. Morgan. From 2005-2014 Mr. Kunhardt was Managing Director in the firm's Corporate Finance Advisory Group, advising clients on optimal capital structure, dividend policy, optimal liquidity, debt capacity, acquisition financing, and shareholder value maximization. Before retiring, he was also Co-Head of Global Ratings Advisory, overseeing all corporate credit ratings analysis across the investment bank. During his career, Mr. Kunhardt held positions in the firm's Acquisition Finance Group, Mergers and Acquisitions, Financial Advisory Department, Credit Risk Management, and as Head of J.P. Morgan's High-Grade Loan Structuring Group. Since his retirement, he has joined several non-profit organizations. He is a Partner with Social Venture Partners of Connecticut (non-profit consulting), a Board Member of Connect-Us in Bridgeport (after-school youth development and job training), and just completed his role as Board Chair of Achievement First Bridgeport Academy. Mr. Kunhardt graduated phi beta kappa, magna cum laude from Middlebury College and received his MBA with honors from the University of Chicago.
